Douglas A. Venturelli is an Estate & Gift, Trust and Probate Principal at KROST. He has 45 years of experience in tax, estate, and business services. His main focus is federal estate, and gift taxes. Doug consults with clients in the entertainment, legal, real estate, and medical industries.

Doug can assist with the transition of family wealth and estate succession. He has experience working with family-owned and privately held companies, as well as high-net-worth individuals. His primary goal is to assist individuals and their attorneys to effectively transfer wealth while minimizing unnecessary estate, gift, and generation-skipping taxes. In addition, he can coordinate all of your Estate & Gift, Trust and Probate Planning needs to ensure a smooth transition while minimizing emotional, tax, and administrative burdens.
