Stacey Korman is the Accounting Principal at KROST. She is a key member of our advisory team and is a trusted consultant. Stacey has extensive experience in assurance, advisory, and accounting services, with an emphasis on middle-market companies and high-net-worth individuals. She has spent her career managing audits, reviews, and compilation engagements. To support KROST clients during the pandemic, Stacey helped launch the firm's PPP Loan Assistance program, including the team's development of a unique calculator that optimizes loan forgiveness.

She serves a variety of industries, including management companies of hedge funds, high-net-worth individuals, entertainment, real estate, technology, foodservice, and not-for-profits. She also leads the firm's Client Accounting Service (CAS) practice, providing consulting and cash management services to professional services companies, high net worth individuals, and small businesses. In addition to leading the day to day operations of the accounting department which includes business management services, Stacey is a mentor to staff members and leads technical and leadership training sessions.

Prior to joining KROST, Stacey was a senior manager at a top 10 national firm where she served commercial service clients in a variety of industries.
